Areas of Practice Criminal

General profile

Counsel has a broad criminal practice in both summary and indictable crime in all areas of criminal practice, including trials and appellate matters.

He holds an Indictable Crime Certificate and is recognised by Victoria Legal Aid Criminal Trial Preferred Counsel List.

While initially practising in industrial law his dominant area of practice is criminal law.

He took leave of the Bar from 1992 – 1994 to work as an appeals counsellor with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees acting on behalf of asylum seekers in Hong Kong. He has a continuing interest and involvement in human rights matters.

Previous occupation

Prior to coming to the bar in 1990 Steven was an industrial advocate with the Commonwealth Public Service Board and then the Australian Public Service Association during the accord and the system of centralised wage fixation.
